I've been pulling my hair out here, guys. I am ready to change out my head gaskets and I'm under the truck all day and can't find those drain plugs. By the way, I have a 88' GMC Sierra 5.7L(K1500). Here's what I've read: There are two drain plugs, one on each side of the block, near the middle of the engine where the oil pan meets the engine. I really like my Hanes manual, but sometimes that ...
