These poems were chosen from years of teaching poetry and include such authors as Robert Louis Stevenson, Jack Prelusky, and others. Some poems have only two readers, some have as many as 4 or 5 depending on the poem. These are fantastic for building your students fluency, but also for teaching the CCSS on the elements of poetry.

Partner Reading. Sometimes having students partner up and read together at the same time is very beneficial and a great way for students to practice their fluency. I have used students who are on different levels but close. However, I would not suggest using students who are many levels apart, as that will just lead to frustration. 7.) Timed ...
