Veil of Night by Linda Howard | LibraryThing

Linda Howard is one of those writers who can both invoke laughter and outrage at the characters she creates...and there were spots of that in this story. I'd so been looking forward to the release of this book...based on the story line, I'd built up my expectations for another DYING TO PLEASE with Susan Ericksen...sadly I didn't get it.

Cover Of Night — Linda Howard

Linda Howard is again back to her best with this great novel. Very similar to Mr Perfect and Now you See It, and lots of other titles. Unlike recent books, where the sensuality was almost non existent, the relationship between Jaclyn and Eric is steamy to say the least. Another plus, was the humour.
